

Sec. 23-110. Applicability of article; right of city to amend article.

This article shall apply to any person discharging or proposing to discharge waste into the sanitary sewerage system. This article shall not be considered as or construed to be a contract between the city and any person. The city hereby expressly reserves the right to amend, change or repeal this article at any time.

(Code 1979, § 5-3009)